DETAILED ACTION

Amendments

1. The Amendment filed on 06/07/2004 has been entered.

The specification has been amended.

New claim 14 has been added.

Pending in this office action are claims 1-14.

The present Office Action is made with all the suggested amendments being fully considered.

§ 112 Rejection Withdrawn

2. Claim 6 having been properly amended, the previous rejection under 35 USC § 112 is now withdrawn.

Objection to the Specification Withdrawn

3. The objected parts of the specification having been properly amended, the previous objections are now withdrawn.

Response to Applicant's Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 06/07/2004 have been fully considered and also found persuasive. The application is now allowed.

ALLOWANCE

5. Claims 1-14 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

6. Claims 6, 10 and 14 are allowed for the invention of a laser emission device based on laser diode array that is known to have strongly different solid angles of emission, i.e., the fast axis and the slow axis, said laser emission device using laminated optical waveguides that simultaneously match the different cone angles of emission along the fast and slow axes by putting the waveguide plates at an interval that accommodates the slow axis emission angle, while accommodating the fast axis emission angle with the refractive curvature of the input surface of the planar waveguides, so as to achieve at the output or emission surface of the laminated waveguide array a laser beam array having a low and more uniform divergence that is efficiently passed through a optical fiber bundle for convenient and much less problematic transfer to the end receiver or other optical device(s).

Claim 7 is allowed for reciting the limitations for the individual optical waveguide laminate to be used in claims 6, 10 and 14.

Claims 1-5, 8, 9, and 11-13 are allowed for their dependency, either directly or indirectly, to claims 6, 7, 10 or 14.

7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
